Information from our Club Secretary by Dick McLane

We welcome new member Virginia Scott! She thanks Marje Stromme for encouraging her to join, after many years of considering doing that. She looks forward to learning from her fellow members and the club's programs about camera techniques and photographic vision.

Her interest in photography goes back to childhood in Park Ridge, IL. Her father was an avid photographer whose prize possession was an Exakta SLR with Zeiss lenses. In the 1960s, after his death, she taught herself how to use this classic camera--a great way to get the feel for f-stops and shutter speeds before auto programs made it too easy!

She enjoys digital photography and is getting acquainted with her new Pentax K100D. She mounts some of her prints on 5 x 7 notecards, which she markets under the name "Natural Impressions" to the shop at Lincoln Memorial Garden, the Dana-Thaomas Sumac Shop, the Illinois State Museum store, and personal contacts.

Virginia lives in Springfield with her husband, David. Her email address is: vrs2124@insightbb.com

Photography Quote

At 42, I decided to become a photographer because it offered a means of creative thought and action. I didn't rationalize this, I just felt it intuitively and followed my intuition, which I have never regretted.
